—The old-fashioned Home Journal has abandoned the unwieldy "blanket sheet," and appeared last week in the more convenient size of the modern eight-page paper; but there is no change in the tone and general style of the paper, which was established by George P. Morris and N. P. Willis nearly fifty years ago.

—A symposium on "Constructive Freethought" was begun in the New York Truth Seeker of Feb. 8, and will be continued through the two succeeding numbers. Among the contributors are R. G. Ingersoll, T. B. Wakeman, R. B. Westbrook (president of the American Secular Union), Parker Pillsbury, and many others.

—The next volume of the series of "Historic Towns," edited by Mr. E. H. Freeman and Mr. Hunt, will be "Winchester," by Mr. G. W. Kitchin, the Dean of Winchester, who declares that the place teems with picturesque tradition and anecdote, and thinks it the most historic of English cities. The book will be published immediately by the Longmans.

—Among the principal articles in Belford's Magazine for February are one by Adele M. Garrigues on the University of Michigan, one by W. A. Phillips on "The New English Invasion," and one by John McGovern on the new auditorium in Chicago. "The State and the Citizen" and "The Case of Brazil" are treated editorially.

—The remarkable weeping spruce, Picea Breweriana, which was discovered in the Siskiyou Mountains in 1884, is figured in Garden and Forest for the past week, and Professor Goodale gives an interesting study of heather in North America. Garden art in public parks is treated editorially, and there is the usual variety of matter prepared by experts in different branches of horticulture.

—On Jan. 1, 1890, was issued the first number of a monthly magazine of popular natural history for Scotland. It is intended to make it a chronicle of the work done by the different natural history societies in Scotland; and reports of their meetings, excursions, etc., as well as the more important papers read before them, will receive special attention. All communications regarding it should be addressed to the editors, care of the publisher, Mr. W. B. Robinson, 194 Sauchiehall Street and 105 New City Road, Glasgow, Scotland.

—Marion Harland has taken up the work of restoring the ruined monument marking the burial-place of Mary, the mother of Washington. The publishers of The Home-Maker, of which Marion Harland is the editor, offer, as their contribution to the good cause, seventy-five cents out of every annual subscription of two dollars to the magazine sent in during the next six months. Every such subscription must be accompanied by the words, "for Mary Washington monument."

Natural Science for Young People.

COOPER'S ANIMAL LIFE IN THE SEA AND ON THE LAND. A Zoology for Young People. By SARAH COOPER. Profusely Illustrated. 414 pp. 12mo, Cloth, $1.25.

The aim has been to make this little book accurate, and to bring it up to the present condition of science; at the same time scientific terms have been avoided when others could be substituted for them. Starting with the sponge, and going systematically through the animal kingdom, a gradual development has been traced from the simple forms of life up to the highest, and such subjects have been selected for the purpose as are of most general interest. Especial attention has been given to the structure of animals, and to the wonderful adaptation of this structure to their various habits and modes of life.

CHAPTERS ON PLANT LIFE. By SOPHIE BLEDSOE HERRICK. Illustrated. 206 pp. Square. 16mo, Cloth, 60 cents.

It explains in simple language all that is known of the vegetable kingdom, and the analogies and differences between it and the animal. The work is handsomely gotten up and fully illustrated.—Brooklyn Eagle.

HOME STUDIES IN NATURE. By MRS. MARY TREAT. Beautifully Illustrated. 244 pp. Cloth. 90 cents.

Subjects Treated: Part I., Observations on Birds; Part II., Habits of Insects; Part III., Plants that Consume Animals; Part IV., Flowering Plants.

THE EARTH IN PAST AGES. A Geology for Young People. By SOPHIE BLEDSOE HERRICK. Richly Illustrated. 208 pp. Square 12mo, Cloth, 60 cents.

The "Earth in Past Ages" is a well-planned endeavor to make geology interesting to young people. It is illustrated very well indeed, and the text is clear and free from that scientific terminology which is so apt to take the courage and interest together out of beginners by confronting them with a vehicle of exposition which is itself nearly unintelligible. The present author has avoided that difficulty, and has nicely sugar-coated the pills of knowledge.—New York Tribune.
